

INSIGNIA REPORT

“INSIGNIA 2022” – the annual inter-college sports and cultural event organized by ASM’s Institute was held from 30th May to 4th June 2022. The theme of the event was “Save Soil”.

On Monday the 30th of May 2022, the grand annual event kicked off with the start of the inter-college sporting competitions. Outdoor sporting events were held at Madanlal Dhingra Ground, Nigdi. Respected Mrs. Anita Kedari, the sports officer for PCMC, and Our Beloved Dr. Sandeep Pachpande, the chairman of the ASM Group of Institutes, attended the inaugural event as the chief guests. Mr. Rangrao Karande-Sports Supervisor and Mr. Justin Mathew and the PCMC Smart City team also graced the occasion. The participants received encouragement and motivation from all the directors and professors who were also present.

Respected Mrs. Anita Kedari, Sports Officer PCMC addressed the participants about the value of regular exercise for the body and mind. Up next, the Pooja ceremony was held on the pitch, and the team captains for the first event- Cricket were called on for the toss. The Chief guests greeted the captains with a handshake and gave some words of encouragement. In the knockout cricket competition, 19 teams competed.

On June 1st, the cricket competition final was played, and the ASM IBMR MBA (Regular) team emerged victorious. The SNBP Boys squad won the football event, which had six teams, while ASM IBMR PGDM finished in second place. The volleyball competition had four teams, and the championship game took place on June 1st. The winner was DY Patil MCA and ASM IBMR MBA (Regular) was the runner-up. The athletes were able to demonstrate their abilities, teamwork, and leadership via these sports activities. Additionally, it instilled a sense of competition and energy among the pupils and fosters a culture of sportsmanship.

Indoor Sports Events:

The indoor sporting events were held at the college campus. The various indoor sports were:

1. Chess
2. Table Tennis
3. Carrom
4. Badminton

The Chess games had thirty participants. The games were competitive with every participant trying to outsmart their opponents. Sonam Vishvakarma was the winner among the girls and Safaljeet Pawar from ASM IBMR was the winner among the boys. The Carrom event had forty participants and Manshi Shinde from ASM IPS was the winner in the girls’ competition and Tushar Patil was the winner in the boys’ competition. The Table Tennis tournament had twenty participants. Snehal Jangle (DY Patil) was the winner in the girls’ tournament and Aaruni Kamble (DY Patil) was the winner among the boys.

The Cultural Events:

On Friday the 3rd of June 2022, the cultural fest of "Insignia 2022" began with the inaugural ceremony. On this special day, Respected Mr. Kiranraj Yadav, Joint CEO-PCMC Smart City Ltd., and Respected Ms. Kamini Patel, a profound volunteer in 'Isha Foundation' elevated the ceremony with their presence as the chief guests. Our beloved Dr. Asha Pachpande, Director-ASM Group of Institutes, and Dr. Sandeep Pachpande, Chairman-ASM Group of Institutes graced the inaugural ceremony. Mr. Justin Mathew and the PCMC Smart City Team have also graced the occasion. The event was enthusiastically welcomed by faculty, staff, and students of the ASM group. The program was inaugurated by lighting the lamp and Poojan of Goddess Saraswati at the hands of the chief guests. Respected Dr. Sandeep Pachpande addressed the gathering about Insignia and this year's theme 'Save Soil'. Respected Dr. Asha Pachpande then gave all the participants words of encouragement and proclaimed the event open. Respected Ms. Kamini Patel also delivered a brief speech outlining the significance of soil conservation and the involvement of the "Isha Foundation" in this initiative.

Our college students' welcome dance helped the event get moving. Then the cultural activities began. The State Bus performed live at the end of the day-long programme, which also included the Rangoli and Face Painting competitions, Mad Ad, Street Play, Sing-O-Mania (a singing competition), and Footloose (a dance competition).

4th of June 2022:

The Minute to Win It competition, where competitors had to finish specific tasks in under a minute to win prizes, came first on the final day of "Insignia 2022," then the Best of Waste and Bike Rodeo competitions. The two main events of the day were Glam Slam, a fashion show in which teams from several departments competed and mesmerised the audience with their ramp walk routines and spectacular costumes, and ASM's Got Talent, where a large number of ASM students displayed their special talents on stage. A DJ Night performance by DJ Sanket Ninariya marked the end of the day. The occasion was a huge success and showcased ASM at its best.
