

Book Mohostav

Date: 09^h December 2025

Time: 11:00 pm to 12:00 pm

Venue: IPS Library

Introduction:

Books play a vital role in shaping an individual's knowledge, thoughts, values, and overall personality. In the present digital era, cultivating reading habits among students has become more important than ever. With the objective of promoting the culture of reading and highlighting the importance of books in academic as well as personal development, our college organized Book Mohotsav on 9 December 2025. The program aimed to encourage students to explore various genres of books and to develop a lifelong habit of reading. The event created a literary environment on the campus and motivated students and faculty members to reconnect with books as a powerful source of learning and inspiration.

Objective:

- To inculcate reading habits among students.
- To create awareness about the importance of books in education and life.
- To promote intellectual growth and critical thinking among students.
- To provide a platform for students to explore different types of books and authors.
- To encourage students to develop a love for literature and knowledge.

Report:

The Book Mohotsav was organized on 9/12/2025 in the college library with enthusiastic participation from students, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff. The event commenced with an introductory session in which the importance of books in shaping thoughts, values, and knowledge was explained. The organizers briefed the students about the objectives of the Book Mohotsav and encouraged them to actively participate in the activities planned for the day.

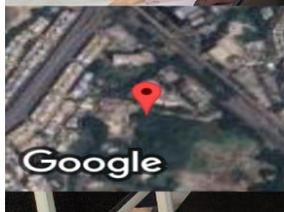

A well-arranged book exhibition was the main attraction of the event. A wide variety of books covering academic subjects, competitive examinations, literature, novels, biographies, self-help, motivational books, and general knowledge were displayed. Students were given sufficient time to browse through the books, read excerpts, and select books according to their interests. Faculty members played an important role by guiding students in choosing books that would support their academic growth and career aspirations. Interactive sessions were also conducted during the event, where students shared their reading experiences and discussed their favorite books and authors. This exchange of ideas helped in broadening students' perspectives and inspired many participants to explore new genres of reading. The discussions created an intellectually stimulating environment and strengthened communication skills among students. The event successfully created a positive and enthusiastic atmosphere throughout the campus. Students showed keen interest in exploring books and actively participated in discussions related to the importance of reading. The Book Mohotsav served as an effective platform to remind students that books are a powerful medium for gaining knowledge, enhancing creativity, and developing critical thinking abilities.
