Introduction: Constitution Day in India, also known as Sanvidhan Divas, commemorates the adoption of the Indian Constitution on January 26, 1950. This historic document is the cornerstone of India's democratic governance, outlining the fundamental rights, duties, and principles of the country. It reflects the aspirations and values of a diverse nation and embodies the vision of its founding fathers. Constitution Day in India is a time to reflect on the importance of upholding democratic ideals, promoting equality, justice, and the rule of law. It serves as a reminder of the ongoing journey towards building a more inclusive and prosperous society for all Indians. In colleges, Constitution Day often involves seminars, debates, and other educational activities to deepen students' understanding of the Constitution and its significance in shaping modern India.

Objective:

- 1 Constitution Day aims to recognize the important principles that formed the basis of the Indian Constitution. It serves as a reminder of the fundamental values and ideals enshrined in our legal framework.
- 2 The day underscores the cause of law and its fundamental role in society. By celebrating Constitution Day, we highlight the significance of legal principles and their impact on governance, justice, and individual rights.
- 3 Constitution Day seeks to create awareness about the Constitution among citizens of India. It encourages people to understand their rights, responsibilities, and the functioning of democratic institutions.
- 4 Through various programs and activities, Constitution Day promotes constitutional values such as equality, justice, liberty, and fraternity. It encourages citizens to uphold these values in their daily lives.

5 On this day, we rededicate ourselves to the noble ideals and sublime purposes of the Indian Constitution. It serves as a moment to reflect on our commitment to democracy, secularism, And social justice.

Report: Constitution Day, also known as Sanvidhan Divas, holds immense significance in India as it commemorates the adoption of the Indian Constitution on January 26, 1950.
