

Date: 7th November 2025

Time: 03:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Venue: CSIT Mini Auditorium

Topic: - “Diwali Celebration”

Introduction:

The festival of Diwali was celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy at ASM’s Institute of Professional Studies (IPS). The entire campus was beautifully decorated with vibrant lights, colorful rangolis, and diyas, creating a festive atmosphere all around. The celebration brought together students, faculty, and staff members to share happiness, positivity, and cultural values. The event was graced by the presence of Mrs. Priti Pachpande Madam as the Chief Guest, whose inspiring words added immense value to the occasion.

Objectives:

- The event promoted traditional values, unity, and festive spirit within the college community
- Celebrate the festival of lights, symbolizing the victory of good over evil.
- To promote cultural unity, teamwork, and enthusiasm among students and staff.
- To strengthen the bond between students, faculty, and the management through collective celebration.

- To spread awareness about eco-friendly Diwali and the importance of traditional Indian festivals.

Detailed Report:

The Diwali celebration began with traditional puja (worship) to Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Ganesha, seeking blessings for prosperity and happiness. The puja setup was elegantly arranged with flowers, diyas, and a colorful rangoli designed by students from various departments. The fragrance of incense and the sound of devotional songs filled the air, creating a spiritual ambiance.

The highlight of the event was the presence of Mrs. Priti Pachpande Madam, who joined the celebration as the special guest. She inaugurated the event with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and shared her encouraging thoughts about the importance of cultural celebrations in educational institutions. Madam appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee and motivated students to uphold traditions while embracing modernity.

The entire college was decorated beautifully — classrooms, corridors, and entrances glowed with fairy lights, lanterns, and handcrafted decorations made by students

Snacks and sweets were distributed to all , adding sweetness to the celebration. Faculty members and students enthusiastically participated in group photos and exchanged warm Diwali wishes, making it a memorable day for everyone.

Photos

Audyogik Shikshan Mandal's

(Society Regd. No. Maharashtra/1330/Pune 83; Public Trust No. F-2451/Pune 83)

INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES (IPS)

(Approved by AICTE, Govt. of India & affiliated to University of Pune)

AICTE CODE : 1-4240185 DTE CODE : MB6166 AISHE CODE : C-46639

Outcome:

- The event successfully created a joyful and culturally rich environment across the campus.
- Students actively participated in decoration, performances, and pooja arrangements, showcasing teamwork and creativity.
- The presence of Mrs. Priti Pachpande Madam made the celebration more inspiring and memorable.
- The celebration strengthened the bond between students, faculty, and administration.
- The event promoted traditional values, unity, and festive spirit within the college community