Diwali Celebration

Date: 26th October 2024

Time: 11:00 am to 12:00 pm

Venue: ASM IPS College Pimpri

Introduction:

Diwali, known as the "Festival of Lights," signifies the victory of light over darkness and good over evil. At ASM Institute of Professional Studies (IPS), the festival was celebrated with immense enthusiasm, bringing together students, faculty, and staff to partake in the joyous occasion.

Families prepare and share a variety of sweets and savories, emphasizing the festive spirit and the importance of togetherness.

Special prayers and rituals are conducted, particularly honoring Goddess Lakshmi, seeking her blessings for wealth and prosperity in the coming year.

Diwali's universal message of light prevailing over darkness and knowledge over ignorance resonates deeply, making it a cherished celebration that transcends cultural and geographical boundaries

Objective:

- To honor the cultural significance of Diwali and immerse participants in its rich traditions.
- To foster a sense of unity and inclusivity among the college community.
- To provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and entrepreneurial skills

Report:

The celebration commenced with the lighting of the traditional lamp by Dr. Vikas Babate and esteemed faculty members, symbolizing the dispelling of darkness and the ushering in of knowledge and prosperity.

A heartfelt welcome address was delivered, emphasizing the importance of cultural festivities in academic institutions.

The event not only provided a platform for festivity but also enriched the participants' cultural awareness and social responsibility.

The campus was adorned with vibrant rangoli designs at key locations, crafted by students and staff. These intricate patterns, made from colored powders and flowers, added to the festive ambiance and showcased traditional art forms.

Buildings and pathways were illuminated with strings of lights and Diya's (oil lamps), creating a warm and inviting atmosphere that reflected the essence of Diwali.

All Staff Decide to wear a traditional Indian attire, celebrating the diversity and elegance of regional clothing. This segment highlighted the importance of traditional dress in cultural celebrations.
