

Gandhi Jayanti

Date: 03rd October 2025

Time: 04:00 pm to 05:00 pm

Venue: IPS HBX Hall

Introduction:

On 2nd October 2025, ASM IPS College celebrated Gandhi Jayanti with deep reverence and patriotic spirit to honour the 156th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, warmly remembered as the Father of the Nation. This day holds special significance in Indian history as it reminds us of Gandhiji's relentless efforts in leading the freedom struggle through the principles of truth (Satya) and non-violence (Ahimsa). The celebration was not merely a ritual but also an educational experience aimed at connecting today's young generation with Gandhiji's timeless ideals. The college campus was filled with an atmosphere of respect and reflection as students and staff came together to pay homage to this great leader. Gandhi Jayanti also serves as an occasion to promote values of peace, equality, and simplicity in society, which are crucial in today's fast-changing world. By organizing this event, the college intended to instill Gandhian philosophy among students, inspire them to adopt moral values in their lives, and encourage them to contribute towards building a harmonious and progressive nation.

Objective:

- To pay tribute to Mahatma Gandhi and remember his contribution to India's independence.
- To create awareness among students about the principles of truth, peace, and non-violence.
- To encourage students to imbibe Gandhian values in their personal and professional lives.
- To promote unity and responsibility through cultural and educational activities.

Report:

The Gandhi Jayanti celebration at ASM IPS College started in the afternoon with a calm and respectful atmosphere. The college premises were decorated with quotes, posters, and banners highlighting the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. Students and faculty gathered in the hall where the event was formally inaugurated.

The program began with the Principal, faculty members, and student leaders offering floral tributes and garlanding the portrait of Mahatma Gandhi. This was followed by a prayer and a two-minute silence, observed to honor his memory and reflect on the values he stood for. The silence created a deep sense of unity and peace among everyone present.

After this, a welcome speech was delivered by one of the faculty members, who spoke about the relevance of Gandhiji's philosophy in today's society. This was followed by a series of student-led activities. Students delivered inspiring speeches on Gandhiji's role in India's independence, his concept of non-violence, and his experiments with truth. Some highlighted how his ideas are still guiding principles for conflict resolution and social justice in the modern world. Teachers also shared their thoughts, underlining how Gandhiji's values could be applied in personal and professional lives. They encouraged students to practice discipline, honesty, and humility, and to use education as a tool for nation-building. The event concluded with a collective pledge, where all students and staff promised to follow the principles of truth, non-violence, and simplicity in their lives. The National Anthem was sung at the end, filling the hall with pride and unity.
