

“Library Day”

Date: 12th August 2024

Time: - 2:30pm – 03:30pm

Venue: ASM’s IPS Library

Introduction: National Librarian's Day is celebrated on August 12th in India to honor the contributions of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, the father of library science in India. In commemoration of this day, ASM’s IPS organized an event to acknowledge the crucial role that librarians play in the academic and research community. This event also aimed to raise awareness about the importance of libraries in the educational ecosystem.

Objective:

1. To pay tribute to Dr. S.R. Ranganathan and his contributions to the field of library science.
2. To recognize and appreciate the efforts of the library staff at ASM’s IPS.
3. To promote the use of library resources among students and faculty.
4. To encourage a culture of reading and research within the college community.

Guest Speaker: - Dr. Sudhakar Bokephode, Dr. D.D. Balsaraf, Dr. Lalit Kanore

Report:

The event commenced with a formal inauguration by the Director of ASM’s IPS Dr. Sudhakar Bokephode, Task force committee member Dr. D.D. Balsaraf and Principal of CSIT- Dr. Lalit Kanore. The dignitaries highlighted the significance of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan's work and his five laws of library science, which continue to guide the management and organization of libraries today. A special segment was dedicated to discussing the life and achievements of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan. A presentation was made by the Head Librarian Mrs. Saroja Patil, detailing his contributions to library science, including the Colon Classification system and the Five Laws of Library Science. An orientation session was conducted for the students to familiarize them with the library's resources and services. This included an introduction to the digital catalog, e-resources, and research databases available at the library. Various interactive activities were organized for students, including a quiz on library science, a book review competition, and a scavenger hunt within the library premises. These activities aimed to engage students and encourage them to explore the library's offerings. The event concluded with a ceremony to honor the library staff for their dedication and service. Appreciation given to the librarians and support staff in recognition of their efforts in maintaining the library as a vibrant center of learning.
