Date: 21st February 2024

Time: 02:00PM – 05:00PM

Venue: ASM’s IPS Auditorium, Pimpri, Pune.

Introduction: The ASM’s IPS organized a vibrant and colorful series of celebrations, including Traditional Day, Group Day, and Mismatch Day, on 21st February 2024. These events aimed to foster a sense of unity, cultural appreciation, and fun among students while providing them with a break from their academic routines. Each day had its unique theme and activities, contributing to the overall spirit of camaraderie and creativity on campus.

Objective:

- Traditional Day: To celebrate the rich cultural diversity of India by encouraging students to dress in traditional attire, representing various regions and traditions.
- Group Day: To promote teamwork, coordination, and unity among students by having them dress in coordinated outfits based on a group theme.
- Mismatch Day: To infuse humor and creativity into the campus environment by encouraging students to wear mismatched and unconventional clothing, fostering a light-hearted and inclusive atmosphere.

Report: "Celebrating Cultural Heritage" – “Traditional Day” Students and faculty came dressed in traditional attire, representing the diverse cultures of India. The campus was a vibrant display of sarees, kurta-pajamas, dhotis, lehengas, and more. The day began with a cultural parade, where students showcased their outfits. Various cultural performances, including dance, music, and a fashion show, were organized to highlight the beauty of India’s diverse traditions.

"Together We Shine" – “Group Day” On Group Day, students formed groups based on their common interests, friendships, or class sections, and dressed in matching or themed outfits. Themes included formal attire, colour coordination, superhero costumes, retro style, and more. The day featured a group photo session, a "Best Group Theme" competition, and a group talent show where students performed skits, songs, and dances. The coordination and creativity displayed by the groups were commendable, with students taking great pride in their group identities. The day ended with awards for the best-dressed group, most creative theme, and best group performance.

"Celebrate the Chaos" – "Mismatch Day" Mismatch Day was all about having fun with fashion, as students were encouraged to wear the most unconventional and mismatched outfits they could think of. The campus was filled with laughter as students walked around in clashing patterns, colours, and styles. The day included a "Mismatch Fashion Show," where participants showcased their quirky outfits, and a series of fun games like "Mismatched Relay" and "Odd One Out."

The carefree and humorous spirit of the day helped to break the monotony of academic life, with students enjoying the freedom to express their individuality in the most unconventional ways. The event concluded with prizes for the funniest and most creative mismatched outfits.

Outcomes:

The celebrations of Traditional Day, Group Day, and Mismatch Day at ASM's IPS were highly successful. Traditional Day helped students gain a deeper appreciation for India's cultural diversity and fostered respect for different traditions and customs. Group Day promoted teamwork and strengthened bonds among students, enhancing their sense of belonging and cooperation within the college community. Mismatch Day provided a much-needed break from routine, allowing students to express their creativity and enjoy a day filled with laughter and light-hearted fun.

The events saw enthusiastic participation from students and faculty alike, contributing to a positive and lively campus atmosphere.
