Farewell Party - Batch 2023-2025

Date: 19th April 2025

Time: 3:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Venue: IPS Auditorium

Introduction:

Farewells are never easy, especially when they mark the end of a transformative journey. On 19th April 2025, ASM's Institute of Professional Studies hosted a heartfelt farewell ceremony of the 2023–2025 academic Batch, celebrating the achievements and memories created over the past two years. This batch has not only grown academically but has also evolved into confident professionals ready to step into the real world.

The event was meticulously planned to give students a warm send-off filled with joy, laughter, remembrance and inspiration. It brought together faculty, students, and staff in a shared space of gratitude and celebration, reflecting the spirit of unity and support that defines ASM.

The farewell served as more than just a goodbye—it was a moment of reflection, of looking back at the growth, challenges, and accomplishments of the outgoing batch. It was an occasion to cherish the bonds formed, the lessons learned, and the unforgettable experiences that have shaped each student. The atmosphere was a mix of excitement for the future and a touch of melancholy, knowing that college life was drawing to a close.

This ceremony also provided an opportunity for faculty members and mentors to convey their best wishes, guiding words, and admiration for the students' journey. The blend of formal recognition and vibrant performances made the event a memorable chapter in the life of every attendee.

dedication, and achievements over the course of their academic years. His words emphasized the importance of perseverance, lifelong learning, and maintaining strong values beyond the classroom.

His words were not only inspirational but also grounded in reality, urging students to carry forward the values of discipline, ethics, and continuous learning in their personal and professional lives. He emphasized that education is not confined to textbooks but found in everyday experiences and decisions.

A particularly nostalgic moment came during the speech of Dr. Lalit Kanore Sir, former Dean of IPS. His address was filled with heartfelt memories and personal story that struck a deep blend with the students.

He reminisced about academic challenges, informal interactions, campus events, and the individual growth of students, blending humor, encouragement, and fatherly advice. His words reminded students of the strong bonds formed at IPS and reassured them that they would always be part of the institution's extended family.

Dr. Vikas barbate Sir, the current Dean of IPS, gave an insightful and motivating speech focused on the future of the students. He highlighted the importance of adaptability, critical thinking, and emotional intelligence in today's fast-changing world. His message struck a balance between realism and hope, preparing students mentally for life after graduation. He also praised the batch for their discipline, creativity, and enthusiasm during their time at IPS. Dr. barbate Sir's vision for the future of IPS and its alumni reinforced a strong institutional identity and pride among students.

The program continued with a lively lineup of cultural events

Ganesh Vandana by Harshika Pardeshi opened the event with spiritual grace and cultural depth. The auspicious beginning of the farewell ceremony was marked by a soulful Ganesh Vandana performed by Harshika Pardeshi. With a serene presence and graceful movements, she invoked the blessings of Lord Ganesha—the remover of obstacles and the symbol of wisdom.

next was Comedy performances by Geetanjali brought laughter and relief, adding a joyful spark to the farewell. Geetanjali's comic timing and witty delivery provided the perfect dose of humor to balance the emotions of the farewell

Through her light-hearted skits and relatable student-life stories, she managed to engage the entire audience—from students to faculty members.

Next was Shreya and Shrikant brought the event to life with a well-planned sequence of interactive games that sparked laughter, excitement, and friendly competition. One of the highlights was the classic movie guessing game, where participants had to act out popular Bollywood or Hollywood films using only gestures—no words allowed—while their teammates guessed the title within minute

Another popular segment was the “cheat bowl challenge,” where students randomly picked chits from a bowl, each containing a quirky or unexpected task. From mimicking a favorite teacher, doing a quick dance step, singing a childhood song. Shreya and Shrikant's enthusiastic hosting and witty commentary kept the momentum high, making this portion one of the most entertaining segments of the event..

Dipika, Puja, and Saurabh delivered mesmerizing dance performances that became one of the main highlights of the farewell event. Their lively choreography blended elements of Bollywood, freestyle, and contemporary moves, instantly lifting the mood of the gathering.

Junior students curated a heartfelt video presentation that served as a touching tribute to the unforgettable journey of the 2023-25 batch. The video featured a montage of photographs and short clips from classroom moments, cultural events, fests, group studies, tours, and casual campus hangouts—each frame telling a story of friendship, learning, and personal growth. As the video played, laughter, nostalgic sighs, and even a few tears filled the room.

the event transitioned into a lively Prize Distribution ceremony, celebrating the outstanding achievements of students. Komal Patkar was honored with the prestigious Student of the Year award, while Aditi Bodakhe received the Best Outgoing Female Student award.

The Cake Cutting Ceremony was one of the most heartwarming moments of the farewell event. At around 5:30 PM, the faculty, staff, and students gathered together to celebrate the wonderful journey of the outgoing batch.

A beautifully decorated cake, symbolizing success and new beginnings, was brought onto the stage. The ceremony began with a few words of congratulations from the faculty members, acknowledging the hard work, achievements, and bright futures of the students.
