

Freshers Party 2025

Date: 19th September 2025

Time: 03:00 pm to 09:00 pm

Venue: IPS Auditorium

Introduction:

The beginning of a new academic journey is always filled with curiosity, excitement, and anticipation. To celebrate this spirit, ASM's Institute of Professional Studies organized the MBA Freshers' Party 2025 on Friday, 19th September 2025, at its Pimpri-Chinchwad campus. The event was specially planned to provide a warm and cheerful welcome to the new MBA batch, making them feel comfortable and connected to the ASM family. The Freshers' Party is one of the most awaited traditions of the institute, as it not only introduces the juniors to the exciting culture of ASM but also strengthens the bond between seniors and fresh candidates. It is a platform where students come together to share joy, showcase their diverse talents, and build friendships beyond classrooms. This year's celebration was marked by a perfect blend of traditional rituals, motivational speeches, cultural performances, fun games, and entertaining activities. The presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. D.D.Balsaraf and respected faculty members, added dignity to the occasion. Their encouraging words inspired students to pursue excellence, upgrade skills, and adapt to new-age technologies, aligning education with the needs of the evolving business world.

Objective:

1. To warmly welcome the new MBA batch of 2025 into the ASM family.
2. To provide a platform for students to express their creativity and talent.
3. To encourage interaction between seniors, juniors, and faculty in an informal setting.
4. To promote confidence, teamwork, and cultural values among students.
5. To create memorable moments that mark the beginning of the students' MBA journey.

Speaker: Dr. D.D.Balsaraf

Report:

The Freshers' Party 2025 at ASM's Institute of Professional Studies began at 3:00 PM sharp with a warm Welcome Speech by the anchors Dipika and Shrikant. Their cheerful words and lively anchoring set a vibrant tone for the evening, ensuring that the audience was excited and engaged from the very beginning.

Lamp Lighting & Felicitations of Guests To mark the positive start of the program, a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony was conducted, symbolizing the removal of darkness and the spread of knowledge. Esteemed dignitaries and faculty members were then felicitated with floral tributes and tokens of respect. Among the honored guests were Dr. D. D. Balsaraf, Dr. Lalit Kanore, Dr. Vikas Barbate and Dr. Sachin Kulkarni. Their presence added respect and inspiration to the event.

Following the felicitations, Dr. D. D. Balsaraf addressed the gathering with an insightful and motivational speech. He emphasized the importance of upgrading skills, adapting to modern technologies like AI and data-driven tools, and making the most of opportunities during the MBA journey. He also urged students to actively participate in co-curricular and extracurricular activities to build confidence, teamwork, and leadership skills. His address was met with applause and left a lasting impression on the students.

Cultural Performances & Activities The cultural segment began with a divine Ganesh Vandana performed by Harshika Pardeshi, seeking blessings for success and prosperity. This was followed by a series of musical and dance performances: A melodious singing performance uplifted the atmosphere with harmony. Geetanjali's graceful classical solo dance mesmerized the audience with its elegance. In between performances, fun games were organized to keep the excitement alive. Ms. Shreeya and Mr. Shrikant, second-year students, conducted an innovative and interactive game for the freshers. The task was to build a pyramid of paper glasses, place a ball on the top glass, and then carefully collect the glasses one inside another without dropping the ball. The challenge tested participants' patience, focus, and balance. The student who completed the task fastest and without any mistakes was declared the winner. This activity created a lot of cheer, encouragement, and laughter among the audience while boosting participation from juniors. After that Rahul Gaikwad's soulful instrumental music performance added a soothing yet energetic vibe to the evening. Then Chit-Picking Task Game – In this activity, a bowl containing 20 chits with different fun tasks was placed on the stage. One by one, juniors were invited to pick a chit, and they had to perform the task written on it.

Some of the tasks included:

- Sing a song of your choice for 30 seconds.
- Perform a short dance step on any Bollywood number.
- Mimic a famous actor or one of the faculty members.
- Tell a tongue twister without making mistakes.
- Share one fun fact about yourself.
- Say a few lines introducing yourself in a unique or funny way.

The unpredictability of the tasks created a lively and funny atmosphere. Students performed with full interest, and the audience cheered for each participant. This activity not only broke the ice between juniors and seniors but also boosted the confidence of the freshers to face the stage.. Both activities turned out to be huge crowd-pullers, as seniors and faculty cheered actively for the juniors, creating an atmosphere of bonding and enjoyment. Colorful group dances by IIBR and IPS students, as well as a duet dance by Arati and Abhilasha, brought energy and vibrance to the stage. Then Stand-up comedy by Sahil & team and a comedy act by Geetanjali filled the auditorium with laughter and entertainment. Fashion Show & Competitions One of the most glamorous highlights of the evening was the Fashion Show, jointly presented by students of IPS and IIBR. The participants walked the ramp with confidence, creativity, and style, showcasing both traditional and western outfits. The event not only displayed their personality but also reflected the cultural diversity of ASM. Along with cultural events, various fun competitions and games were conducted to test creativity, confidence, and naturalness among the freshers. The winners of these contests were later honored during the Prize Distribution Ceremony by Vikas Vidhate and team. Towards the end, students eagerly awaited the Prize Announcements, where performers and winners of competitions were recognized for their outstanding efforts. This was followed by a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Shruti Madam, who expressed gratitude towards the management, faculty, organizing committee, and students for making the event successful. The formal program concluded at around 5:30 PM, but the celebrations didn't end there. Students enjoyed music, refreshments, and informal interactions, which added to the joy of the evening. The event was filled with energy, enthusiasm, and togetherness, leaving unforgettable memories for the new MBA batch.

Outcomes:

The MBA Fresher's Party 2025 at ASM IPS College proved to be a memorable and successful event. The celebration not only extended a warm welcome to the new batch but also created a sense of comfort, belonging, and interest among the fresher's. Through cultural programs, games, and interactive activities, students were able to showcase their talents, boost their confidence, and bond with peers and seniors. The innovative games conducted by second-year students, such as the paper glass pyramid challenge and the chit-picking task game, helped fresher's overcome stage fear, encouraged participation, and fostered teamwork. The fashion show and cultural performances highlighted creativity, energy, and diversity, making the evening exciting and engaging.
